SECTION 1: DEFINITION

- §1 For the purpose of the CEV Regulatory Framework:
- §2 "General Assembly", "Board of Administration", "Executive Committee", "Legal Chamber", "Commission", "Working Group", "Secretariat" and "Internal Auditors" mean one of the bodies of the CEV mentioned and defined in the CEV Regulatory Framework.
- §3 "CEV competition", "Club competition" and "National Team competition" mean one of the competitions mentioned and defined in the CEV Volleyball Competitions Regulations and CEV Beach Volleyball Competitions Regulations.
- §4 "CEV Regulatory Framework" means the Statutes, regulations, decisions, official communications, guidelines, handbooks and instructions of the CEV considered altogether.
- §5 "Club" means a legal entity affiliated to a National Federation with the aim to participate with Players to Volleyball matches in all its forms.
- §6 "Coach" and "Assistant Coach" means an individual affiliated to a National Federation and/or Club and working with or treating players participating in or preparing for sports competitions.
- §7 "FIVB licenced agent" means a legal or natural person who has a licence granted by the FIVB with regard to the activities of an agent as mentioned in the FIVB Regulatory Framework.
- §8 "Force Majeure" means an objective impediment, beyond control, unforeseeable and which cannot be resisted, avoided or overcome by reasonable and due diligence.
- §9 "National Federation" means a national entity legally constituted, recognised and authorised by the relevant sport and public authorities of their defined country and/or territory as the sole national body with primary authority to administer and govern all forms of Volleyball within this defined country and/or territory; structured, organised according to the spirit and provisions of the FIVB Constitution and affiliated to the FIVB and the CEV.
- §10 "Official" means an individual appointed either by the CEV, National Federation, Zonal Federation or Club in order to exercise and fulfil some assigned duties.
- §11 "Player" means an individual affiliated to a National Federation and/or Club with the aim to play matches of Volleyball in all its forms.
- §12 "Zonal Association" means a regional grouping of National Federations within specific areas under the jurisdiction of the CEV and recognised by the latter and the FIVB.
- §13 Use of the word "shall" has the meaning of a command, an obligation or absolute requirement.
- §14 Use of the words "shall not" has the meaning of an interdiction or an absolute prohibition.
- §15 Use of the word "will" has the meaning of a description or an expectation.
- §16 Use of the word "should" has the meaning of a recommendation or an instruction to be strongly carried out.
- §17 Use of the words "should not" has the meaning of a warning that the consequences of a specific action has to be well understood and weighed before doing it.
- §18 Use of the word "may" has the meaning of a true option or an alternative.
- §19 When necessary, the use of the masculine form refers also to the feminine.

SECTION 2: VOLLEYBALL COMPETITIONS

- §1 An international Volleyball competition, within the territory of a member of the CEV and which is not a FIVB or CEV competition, is organised, conducted and played according to the relevant regulations.

SECTION 3: THE CEV BODIES

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 Candidature

- §1 A candidature, for a vacant position in a body, is sent by a National Federation by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt to the Secretariat.
- §2 When a National Federation submits more than one candidature per vacant position, this National Federation has seven days from the notification of the Secretariat to designate the correct candidature. Failing to do so, the relevant candidatures are dismissed.
- §3 A candidate to an vacant position in a body fulfils the following requirements:
- To be presented by the affiliated National Federation of the candidate and to comply with all of the personal requirements established in the CEV Regulatory Framework,
 - To never have initiated judiciary proceedings or given instructions to initiate judiciary proceedings against the FIVB or CEV,
 - To never have been definitely condemned by any court of law for a severe penal crime or expelled from any sports institution,
 - To have an extensive knowledge about the CEV, its bodies and activities,
 - To be able to write and communicate with other people in English,
 - To be available at least 15 days per year for any activities of the CEV (including participation in CEV competitions),
 - To fulfil any other requirements mentioned in the CEV Regulatory Framework.
- §4 A National Federation verifies the fulfilment of the requirements mentioned above.
- §5 The list of candidates is made available to the public by any means no later than 30 days before the General Assembly.
- §6 The putting up of a candidate shall imply a commitment on the part of the National Federation concerned to cover the international transport costs to the final destination in respect of the meetings to be attended by the candidate once elected or appointed.
- §7 No candidate for a position in a CEV body shall involve the Secretariat in any way concerning the preparation of the candidature and campaign.
- §8 All candidates to the Presidency and/or Board of Administration will be given the same opportunities concerning their candidature during the General Assembly.
- §9 In case of a resignation during the term of office, all the National Federations shall be informed immediately of such resignation and shall receive the appropriate directives on possible fall-back arrangements.

1.2 Hierarchy

- §1 Among a body of the CEV, the hierarchy between members is according to the following order:
- For the Board of Administration and Executive Committee:
 - CEV President,
 - Senior Vice-President,
 - Vice-President in charge of financial affairs also called "Treasurer",
 - Vice-President in charge of administrative affairs,
 - Vice-President,
 - Members.
 - For the Commissions and Working groups:
 - President,
 - Secretary,
 - Members.
 - For the Legal Chamber: according to the Legal Chamber Regulations.

- §2 When two or more individuals have the same title, hierarchy is according to the number of years as member of the body of the CEV, then by age of the members.

1.3 Meeting

- §1 The present article does not apply to the General Assembly.
- §2 A meeting of a body is held on the date submitted by its chairman to the Secretariat and after approval of the CEV President.
- §3 Members of a body are summoned by its chairman or, in his absence, according to the hierarchy.
- §4 A meeting of a body is conducted according to the agenda submitted by its chairman to the Secretariat and after approval of the CEV President. The agenda is submitted no later than 14 days before this meeting.
- §5 Minutes of a meeting of a body are sent by its chairman to the Secretariat, no later than 21 days after this meeting. A digital version of the minutes is made available by the Secretariat to the members of the CEV and other bodies of the CEV. In case of time constraints and upon request of the Secretariat, the chairman sends a temporary report to the Secretariat.
- §6 Any related costs for experts, invited to such meetings, will be covered by CEV.

2. GENERAL ASSEMBLY

2.1 Organiser

- §1 The CEV holds the General Assembly in Luxembourg or in any other city decided by the Board of Administration; in the second half of the calendar year, unless otherwise specified.
- §2 The terms and conditions of the organisation are set by the Secretariat in the light of the CEV regulatory framework.
- §3 The date and place of the General Assembly shall be notified to the National Federations at least six month in advance.
- §4 In the case of an extraordinary General Assembly, the Executive Committee decides in agreement with a National Federation within three weeks from the decision or the request on the place and date of the extraordinary General Assembly and foresees the agenda. If no agreement with any National Federation can be achieved, the extraordinary General Assembly will take place in Luxembourg. In such case, the General Assembly shall be held within six month after the decision or the request.

2.2 Minimum requirements

2.2.1 Facilities

- §1 At least one conference room for approximately 150 people, three meeting rooms and one room for the Secretariat are made available.
- §2 The CEV shall request, in good time, a number of rooms which the organizing National Federation shall make available, free of charge. The relevant number of rooms/premises shall be made available, free of charge, to the CEV for the Board of Administration and Executive Committee meetings and for its secretarial services.

2.2.2 Accommodation

- §1 All participants are accommodated in the same hotel. They are provided with three meals per day.
- §2 The National Federations shall be given all the information they need on the terms of and arrangements for the accommodation three months before the opening of the General Assembly.

2.2.3 Visa

- §1 The entity holding the General Assembly does its best to make easier the issue of visas for the participants.

2.2.4 Miscellaneous

- §1 Translation for the official languages of the CEV and hosting country is made available. All recordings are sent to the Secretariat.

2.3 National Federation delegation

- §1 A National Federation attends the General Assembly with a maximum of two delegates. Such National Federation provides the Secretariat, before the deadline set by the latter, with a document allowing these delegates to act on its behalf. It is signed by the competent National Federation's body and bears the National Federation's seal.
- §2 In case of representation of another member, this power of representation shall appear on a document designating the member whose accredited delegates are to be the agents. This document shall be signed by the competent member's body and bears the member's seal, and is handed over to the Secretariat before the deadline set by the latter.
- §3 The amount of the debts relevant for the participation of a National Federation delegation is the one calculated three months before the General Assembly, at the end of this month.
- §4 A room for checking of credentials and a table for keeping of the list of attendance shall be set up close to the General Assembly room.
- §5 The delegates shall be placed in the General Assembly room in alphabetical order of the countries which they represent and their places shall be marked on the table(s).

2.4 Credentials Committee

- §1 The Credentials Committee is a temporary entity which verifies the accreditation of the members and monitors the votes during the General Assembly. The following individuals are not entitled to be a member of the Credentials Committee:
- a. A member of or candidate to the FIVB or CEV Board of Administration or the Legal Chamber,
 - b. A delegate from the same National Federation as a candidate to the FIVB or CEV Board of Administration or the Legal Chamber.

2.5 Voting

- §1 In the General Assembly, voting shall be in alphabetical order of the countries represented.
- §2 Voting in electronic or written form is permitted.

2.6 Agenda

- §1 The official agenda shall be approved by the Board of Administration beforehand, except in cases foreseen in article 3.1 § 4.

2.7 Guests

- §1 Candidates to the Board of Administration not being present in any other function, will be invited as guests to take part in the respective General Assembly, without the right to speak or vote.

3. BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION

3.1 Election and ratification

- §1 The Board of Administration members are elected or ratified according to the following order:
- a. The CEV President,
 - b. The four candidates appointed by the CEV President,
 - c. The remaining candidates.
- §2 Among the elected or ratified members must be at least two persons of each gender. If only candidates of the same gender are elected or ratified among the 19, then only the first 17 (including the CEV President and the 4 members ratified by the General Assembly) are declared elected and the others will be the two from the minority gender who have achieved the most votes. If only one candidate of the minority gender is elected or ratified among the 19, then only the first 18 (including the CEV President, the elected or ratified member of the minority gender and the other members ratified by the General Assembly) are declared elected and the other will be the one from the minority gender who has achieved the most votes.

- §3 The CEV President can appoint his four candidates only once. When one or more candidates appointed by the CEV President are not ratified, the number of vacant positions is increased accordingly. Such candidates not ratified will be eligible in the regular voting procedure.
- §4 When there are not enough candidates of the gender in minority, the open positions for the latter are not filled. Additional elections are organised at the next General Assembly.
- §5 When the resignation, from a member of the Board of Administration, is notified within the two months before the General Assembly, the election takes place at the next General Assembly.

3.2 Meeting

- §1 The Board of Administration meets at least twice a year.
- §2 Notice of meeting, agenda, technical and administrative documents to be discussed by the Board of Administration are prepared by the Secretariat and sent to the members in due time.

3.3 Decision

- §1 The decision to submit to the General Assembly the modification of the Statutes is taken when the following requirements are fulfilled:
 - a. The decision is taken by a three quarter majority,
 - b. The European Legal Commission provided their opinion.

3.4 Remove members from office

- §1 During their four year term, Board of Administration members may only be removed from office by the decision of the General Assembly, for just cause.

3.5 Delegation of powers

- §1 The Board of Administration delegates some of its powers and duties according to article 16.
- §2 It will be informed about the actions taken in delegated matters during its next session.
- §3 Sub-delegations are allowed upon prior approval of the Board of Administration.

4. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- §1 With the sole exception of the President, all Executive Committee members are Vice-Presidents.
- §2 Among them, a Senior Vice-President, a Treasurer and a Vice President in charge of Administrative affairs are proposed by the CEV President and ratified by the Board of Administration. The Treasurer should have experience in financial matters.
- §3 The function of President of the European Financial Commission shall be assumed by the Vice-President taking on the duties of Treasurer.
- §4 During their four year term, Executive Committee members may only be removed from office by the decision of the Board of Administration or the General Assembly, for just cause.
- §5 The Executive Committee meets at least twice a year, summoned on the President's initiative or the request of at least three of its members. Upon request of the President, the Executive Committee may hold a meeting by video or telephone conference.
- §6 The Executive Committee shall assist the President in his duties by performing the functions according to article 16.
- §7 The members of the Executive Committee shall be responsible jointly or, by virtue of their posts, severally for implementation of the decisions of the Board of Administration and the General Assembly. The members of the Executive Committee shall assume this responsibility individually, according to their specific duties.

SECTION 4: MISCELLANEOUS

7. RESIGNATION OF A NATIONAL FEDERATION AS CEV MEMBER

- §1 Any resignation of a National Federation as member of the CEV, on its own will, shall be notified by registered letter to the Board of Administration.

8. FINANCIAL COMPENSATION

8.1 Kinds

- §1 The following kinds of financial compensation may be granted to an Official:
- a. Travel allowance,
 - b. Daily allowance also called "per diem",
 - c. Monthly allowance,
 - d. Meal allowance.

8.2 Definition and calculation

- §1 The financial compensation is paid on the arrival day of the Official. Unless otherwise agreed or mentioned in the CEV Volleyball Competitions Regulations, the CEV pays the financial compensation.
- §2 The travel allowance is in the amount of EUR 100 per trip. It supports all the costs borne by an Official from the permanent residence to the departure and arrival venue; such as for example taxi, bus, meals, etc. This allowance is not granted when another person than the individual bears the above mentioned costs.
- §3 The daily allowance is in the amount of EUR 100 per day; arrival and departure days included. It compensates the work and time granted by an Official to the CEV activities and must be paid in Euros at the latest on the very day of the recipient's arrival.
- §4 The monthly allowance is paid as compensation for the work and time granted by an Official to the CEV on a longer period and higher frequency.
- §5 The meal allowance is in the amount of EUR 30 per lunch and EUR 50 per dinner. It supports all the costs borne by an Official for lunch and dinner. This allowance is not granted when another person than the Official bears the above mentioned costs.

8.3 Distribution

- §1 In accordance with the above mentioned, the following table mentions which Official is eligible to which financial compensation.

Individual	Travel allowance	Daily allowance	Monthly allowance	Meal allowance
CEV President	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
ExCOM member	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
BoA member	Yes	Yes	No	Yes
Commission President & Secretary	No	Yes	Yes	Yes
Commission member	No	Yes	No	Yes
Working Group member	No	Yes	No	Yes
Legal Chamber member	No	Yes	No	Yes
Internal Auditors	No	Yes	No	Yes
Official in CEV competition	No	Yes	No	No

- §2 When the travel or meal allowance is not granted and when another person than the Official does not bear the relevant costs, the Official may request the reimbursement of its costs.
- §3 Unless otherwise specified, the National Federation of a member of a body of the CEV bears the transportation costs of this member related to the meeting of this body.

9. OTHER COSTS

- §1 All visa costs are borne by the person bearing the cost of the return ticket. Visa costs are costs to be paid to national authorities.
- §2 All bank charges are borne by the person proceeding to the payment.
- §3 Any delay in the payment of the dues at their settling date will entail past-due interests of 10% p.a. with a minimum of 2% of the outstanding balance considering payables of CEV after a payment reminder and due notice by the Secretariat.
- §4 All financial commitments made by Commissions or Working groups in the name of the CEV shall have the prior agreement of, as appropriate, the General Assembly, the Board of Administration or the Executive Committee.

10. ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION AND DUES

- §1 With regard to section 2 §4 of the Statutes, the amount of the annual contribution is based on the FIVB categorisation of National Federations and as follows:
 - a. For FIVB categories 1 and 2: 250 Euros,
 - b. For other FIVB categories: 500 Euros.
- §2 The Board of Administration shall fix the amount of the dues in respect of international competitions organized by and in the sole competence of CEV. Such dues shall in no way be assimilated to the annual contribution and shall constitute nothing more than the fees for taking part in the competitions. They shall apply solely to – optional – involvement in international competitions.

11. HONORARY TITLES

- §1 Honorary titles are granted following a proposal of a National Federation or bodies of the CEV.

12. TIME LIMITS

- §1 The computation of time limits is done according to the Legal Chamber Regulations.
- §2 Time limits are suspended during the period of the General Assembly, FIVB Congress and closing of the Secretariat.

13. ACCOUNTING YEAR

- §1 The accounting year shall start on 1st January and end on 31st December of the same year.

14. FIVB BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION

- §1 Unless otherwise specified, the procedure for the election of the FIVB Board of Administration members is ruled by the principles considered for the election of the CEV Board of Administration members.
- §2 At the end of the election are declared elected the first four CEV Board of Administration members who have achieved the most votes and the other four candidates who have achieved the most votes among the remaining CEV Board of Administration members and all other candidates to the FIVB Board of Administration.
- §3 When the results are known, among those not elected, the individual of the gender in minority, who has achieved the most votes, will be designated as the candidate for the gender in minority to the FIVB Board of Administration.
- §4 In case of vacancy of a position in the FIVB Board of Administration, these provisions apply mutatis mutandis.

15. CASES NOT FORESEEN

- §1 Financial matters not foreseen in this section are decided by the Board of Administration.

16. ANNEX - DELEGATION OF POWERS

16.1 Board of Administration

- §1 The Board of Administration delegates the following powers to the CEV President:
- a. Management of the Secretariat,
 - b. Act on behalf of, contract in the name of, create a liability or obligation toward the CEV provided that:
